Summary of reasons for decision:

The image file explicitly depicts a man involving a child or young person in a sexual situation with an element of sexual violence. It is deemed objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children or young persons for sexual purposes. It presents young people as appropriate subjects for adult sexual use and gratification and encourages and legitimises this interest. The image is clearly intended to be sexually arousing to people with a prurient interest in children or young people. The Classification Office has considered the effects of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 on the application of the classification criteria. The objectionable classification given to this image interferes with the right to freedom of expression, but this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications that promote and support the exploitation of children or young persons for sexual purposes be deemed objectionable. It also reflects the concerns of a "free and democratic" society to protect its young and vulnerable members from exploitation.
